BIG WHIST AT THE ARMORY

Given by Ladies of St. Patrick's Parish-Players at 150 Tables-List of Prize Winners and Their Selections.

Keen Interest in Handsome Prizes. The rivalry for the handsome prizes, which were all donated, was especially keen, the two to win first choice on ly keen, the two to win first choice on the ladies and gentlemen's counters were looked upon as extremely lucky. They were Miss Elizabeth Bowen with a score of 43, and Dr. Alfred Richards with a score of 42. From these high marks the cards ranged down to the 30's, many being tied at the different figures. The following were the prize winners, in order:

Miss Elizabeth Bowen, half-dozen cut glass tumblers; Miss Fidelis Donahue silk pillow; Miss Mary Courtney, cut glass vase; Mrs. Koelping, foe creal set; Miss Catherine Gallivan, fancy orass flower basket; Miss Anna Walsh, china clock; Mrs. Thomas H. by the club in excellent style and harmony were much enjoyed. Echoes by Little proved an especial pleasing number. Parker's Cossack War Sonb and Bullard's Winter Song were given with good effect and Nevin's Vesper Starswas a pretty selection.

The club was most happy in its assisting artists. Miss Ellzabeth Tudor, the soprano, made her way into all thearts with her charm of personality and her beautiful voice. She was in instant favorite fro mher first selection.

Thomas Polonaise from Mignon, which was given a skilful rendering. The sweetness, warmth and color of her tones was shown in Cadman's From the Land of the Sky Blue Waters, Thomas' The Willow. Tirindelii's Abient and Ware's Sunlight, which were received with much applause. were received with much applause. Miss Tudor was generous in her response each time and three other delightful sels tions were contributed by her. Her first encore was Songs My Mother Taught Me and the second was Lehman's Cuckeo.

Mrs. Edith Davies Jones, the harpist, also won much favor from the audience for her skilful and expressive playing. Her two solos Richards Weish Melodies and Lorenzi's Il Can'o della Musa wars much appropriated Welsh Melodles and Lorenzi's Il Can'o delle Muse—ware much appreciated. Her recall numbers were the two old sengs so appropriate for this instrument—The Last Rose of Summer and Believe Me if All Those Endsaring Young Charms: She also accompanied Miss Tudor in her third encore, which was the old Welsh song All Through the Night. The clasing selection, Sultivan's Lost Chord, by Miss Tudor and the club, showed each of them in the musical spirit and made a fitting climax to the programme.

imax to the programme. Charles D. Geer, the director, came In for his share of applause from the audience who recognized his skilful direction of the chorus and they appreciated also the work of the accompanist, Frederick W. Lester, who accompanied in his usual skilful style.

They Never Fail

That is What They Say About Them in Norwich, and it is There-fore Reliable.

Another proof, more evidence, Norwich testimony to swell the long list of local people who endorse the old Quaker remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of that remarkable preparation:

Eugone Sweet, Sunnyside Avenue, Norwich, Conn.. says: "It was at least twelve years ago that I first learned of Doan's Kidney Pills. At that time I was in great need of a kidney remedy. For eight weeks I was confined to my bed en account of lumbago and was almost helpless, taving to be turned over and being unable to move at all without assistance. My suffering was about all any person could endure. Sharp pains across my loins and kidneys caused me misery of the worst kind. I was also annoyed by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I consulted three of the best physicians in Providence, R. L. secretions. I consulted three of the best physicians in Providence, R. I., but they failed to make the slightest improvement. It was finally my good fortune to read of Doan's Kidney Pills and I was so much impressed with what was said in their favor that I began their use. Their beneficial effect was soon noticeable and I continued to improve so rapidly that I was soon able to resume work. I give was soon able to resume work. I give the entire credit for my recovery to Doan's Kidney Pills and never intent to be without a supply in the house." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. JAMES R. D. OLDHAM

MADE SUPERINTENDENT

Former Greeneville Teacher Goes to

East Previdence in August.

The many friends of James R. D.
Oldham in this city will be pleased to learn that he has just been elected to the position of superintendent of schools in East Providence at a salary of $1.700 and is to assume control of the schools August 17. Mr. Cldhamis pleasantly remembered as a former teacher in the Greeneville schools, after which, about 1900; he became principal of Moosup schools, a position in which he always did good work. For some time past he has been super-Intendent of schools in the town of Sandwich, Mass., and his reputation for doing high class work has brought, him the well deserved promotion above.
